Four Ponds Tract - 120 ac Recreation Homesite and Timber in Jackson Co., FL Sneads, FL / Jackson County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

The Four Ponds Tract is a recreational powerhouse packed into 120 acres located in Jackson County, FL. Named for its multiple natural ponds, this property is everything a sportsman could want. Hunt deer and turkey on the uplands, and fish and ducks on the ponds for an all-year experience. There are plenty of options for homesites as well with power on the boundary.

The property is 120 acres MOL, with about 10 acres of ponds scattered throughout the property. Most of the land (approx. 70 acres) is established in very healthy planted pine, with the remainder being in natural hardwood and open areas. One good-sized food plot is set up on the property, with plenty of roads and trails throughout creating other hunting and trail-riding options. The land is located close to Lake Seminole and the Chattahoochee River, and is a major duck flyway. The multiple ponds create tons of options for enjoying one of Florida's best wingshooting experiences.

The land is located in North Jackson County, just a short drive from Marianna, FL. Outdoor experiences are plentiful, with Lake Seminole, Blue Springs Recreation Area, Florida Caverns State Park, and many more options. It's also less than a 2-hour drive down to Florida's white-sand beaches. If you're looking for an all-around recreational property with room to build and live, don't miss this one.
