

Below was the trust's 2018 timber estimate - didn't realize we have not updated since as trees seem to grow bigger every year :-)
Some would say more, some would say less, but our estimates are usually slightly low from actuals when loggers have thinned other properties

Cheers, Greg

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Ponderosa Pine – 8"-11" scaling end | 150 MBF |
| Ponderosa Pine – 18"+ scaling end | 100 MBF |
| Douglas Fir, Western Larch, White Fir, Engleman Spruce, Lodgepole Pine 8"+ scaling end | 250 MBF |
| All species chip logs | 1000 Tons |