PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

800 ± Acres | Attoyac River & West Creek Frontage | Premier Cattle & Recreational Ranch

Sandy Creek Ranch spans an impressive 800 ± acres and features approximately 2.3 miles of Attoyac River frontage, along with access to the private 23 ± acre Grisby Lake—part of the exclusive Attoyac Hunting and Fishing Club. In addition to the river, West Creek also winds through the property, adding to the scenic beauty and year-round water resources. Historically used as a cattle operation, the property is cross-fenced with multiple pastures, includes over 10 ponds, and is equipped with working pens and a barn—providing the infrastructure needed for efficient cattle management.

A well-appointed traditional-style home and guest suite provide approximately 4,500 square feet of comfortable living space—ideal for extended stays or entertaining. Positioned on elevated terrain, the home captures expansive views with over 100 feet of elevation change throughout the property.

For the outdoor enthusiast, the land includes approximately 100 acres of bottomland hardwoods ideal for flooded timber duck hunting, as well as natural sloughs that create exceptional waterfowl habitat. In addition to waterfowl, the property supports healthy populations of white-tailed deer and wild boar, offering excellent hunting opportunities for all three game species.

Property Highlights:

- ~2.3 miles of Attoyac River frontage and access to private 23 ± acre Grisby Lake
- West Creek runs through the property, adding scenic and functional water features
- ~4,500 SF traditional-style home and guest suite with elevated views
- Multiple ponds, cross-fenced paddocks, working pens, and a barn for cattle operations
- ~100 acres of bottomland hardwoods with flooded timber and sloughs for duck hunting
