Valley Creek Tract- 105 acres +/- in Dallas County, Alabama
Valley Grande, AL / Dallas County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

105 acres +/- of hunting land for sale in Valley Grande, Dallas County, Alabama. This is a secluded hunting and recreational property approximately 10 miles north of Selma. The property is accessed from a non-exclusive deeded easement that runs approximately 1 mile from Highway 22. You will need a four wheel drive to access the property in the winter. The timber on the property consists of approximately 35-40 acres of mixed pines and hardwoods along the hillsides, approximately 15-20 acres of pine plantation that is close to needing a thinning, and the remaining 35-40 acres is in young naturally regenerated timber, food plots, and roads. Valley Creek is a large creek which makes up the western boundary of the property. On the west edge is a gas line that can be planted for hunting. The property has 4 food plots all with shooting houses for deer hunting. There are lots of whitetail deer and turkeys in this area, and the turkey hunting is really good. The terrain varies quite a bit over this tract. A good internal road system goes throughout the property. This is a good property for hunting or riding four-wheelers. The site index for growing timber is really good if someone wanted to clear-cut the property and plant it all in pines. Power and water are not readily available here, so alternative power sources such as solar and a well would be your best options. For more information or to arrange a time to see this property, please contact Jonathan Goode at 334-247-2005 . Showings are strictly by appointment only please.
