PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Muleskinner Lodge – A Rustic Retreat on 20 Acres in Northeast Kansas

Nestled in the rolling hills of northeast Kansas, the Muleskinner Lodge offers a peaceful escape for those seeking a quiet weekend getaway or a unique income-generating opportunity. Set on approximately 20 acres, this charming cabin is surrounded by mature timber, including stately oaks, walnut trees, and a variety of native hardwoods, which open up to a picturesque pasture brimming with native grasses and wildflowers.

Along the south side of the pasture, a row of fruit trees provide fresh seasonal harvests during the summer months. A creek winds through the timber, drawing in abundant wildlife—ideal for both wildlife viewing and hunting.

The cabin features one bedroom and two full bathrooms, including a lounge area with a hot tub and an adjoining changing room. A spacious wrap-around porch overlooks the wooded landscape, offering ample space for outdoor activities, entertaining, or quiet relaxation.

Inside, the lodge showcases distinctive rustic touches such as a hollow log wash basin, a stone-floor bathroom, and a handcrafted shower with a natural feel. These thoughtful details give the home its warm, one-of-a-kind character.

Additional improvements include two outbuildings: one located to the west of the cabin and another centrally positioned on the property. Formerly operated as a bed and breakfast, Muleskinner Lodge offers potential for continued use as a hospitality rental, a private retreat, or a recreational haven.

Whether you're looking for a weekend escape or a short-term rental, Muleskinner Lodge is a rare opportunity to own a piece of Kansas countryside with charm and possibility.
