PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Live out your country living dream in Polk County, Texas

In the heart of the East Texas Timberlands, you'll find Polk County, an area that serves as a gateway between the Texas Forest Country and the Texas Gulf Coast. Only in this case, "gateway" really means "place conveniently located in-between," because once you see everything Polk County has to offer, you might not want to put down roots anywhere else.

Timber is a big industry in Polk County, but tourism and hospitality, healthcare, and ranching and farming help round out a diverse employment base. The cost of living is favorable, the schools are good, and a revitalized downtown district in Livingston make it both easy to get what you need for everyday living and easy to feel the relaxing spirit and slower pace of small- town Americana.

"Bar D" is a prime example of custom fitted east Texas ranch property. Farm to Market paved road access. Enhanced entrances open to internal roads and trails. The property is ready for family recreation with endless possibilities for further improvement(s). Lake and pond sites. Electricity easily extendable. Established tree cover over gently rolling terrain. Low traffic and low population ensure peaceful entertainment. Come tour today !
